

Artist Statement

My art is a reflection of where I've been and a roadmap to where I am headed. It uses the dark episodes of my past as a basis for the bright lights of the future that I want to see in the world.

Working mainly with acrylics and canvas, my pieces focus on mental health and the beauty of our cosmos. My hope is that anyone looking at my art can feel the confluence of the past with the pull of the possible.

Allison Gamblin